THE NATIONAL CO-OPERATIVE EXCHANGE,

38 EAST 14TH STREET.

ROUTES.

THESE routes are so arranged that visitors with limited time at their disposal can select a route embracing the points of interest they especially desire to see, and by examining the several routes can arrange their plans so as to cover them all by following the schedule we lay down. The routes are arranged in three classes: Walking, using the cars, and walking or using conveyance exclusively.

ROUTE ONE. Time One Day.

Start from the Exchange in Union Square, walk east on Fourteenth Street to Third Avenue Elevated Railroad Station. Corner Broadway and Fourteenth Street you pass the great Domestic Sewing Machine Building, in which are the Home Offices of the Company.

In the next block you will find the Union Square Theatre, Academy of Music, Tammany and Irving Halls. Take the Elevated Cars to Bridge Station, fare five cents. On the right on Eighth Street you pass Cooper Institute, and a block further down on the left is the 69th Regiment Armory. From here the road runs down the Bowery to Chatham Square; then through Park Row to Bridge Station; walk across the Bridge promenade, fare one cent; the view from the centre of the Bridge is beyond comparison; to the south you see the Bay, Staten Island, Governor's Island, Bedloe's, with Bartholdi Statue; to the north the piers of the East River, the Brooklyn Navy Yard and a forest of masts. The bird's eye view of New York and Brooklyn is well worth the trip; from the promenade you can examine the mechanism of the "Grip" which connects the Cable with the cars; ride
